Text of abstract.....

A special issue in an international journal

The organizers plan to publish conference proceedings as a special issue in an international journal. We are thinking about two options, listed below:

Crustaceana <https://brill.com/view/journals/cr/cr-overview.xml>

Journal of Limnology <https://www.jlimnol.it/index.php/jlimnol>

The feasibility of printing a special edition depends on the number of papers the conference can collect and prepare. Therefore, please let us know as soon as possible if you are going to prepare a paper (May 17th deadline).

A practical session on Eurytemora species identification

Please bring Eurytemora specimens pertinent to your work or interests with you. A collection of previously identified species will be available.

Invitation letter for obtaining a Russian visa

If you need an invitation letter in order to get a Russian visa, please send us (eurytemora2019@gmail.com) a scan of the first (detail) pages of your passport with its photo. Please also explain the dates of your stay in Russia as well as the city and country where you plan to obtain your Russian visa. (Russian embassies or consulates can issue your visa if the required paperwork is in order) Useful information regarding embassies or consulates can be found on several sites, such as:

Conference Venue

The Main Hall of the Zoological Institute will serve as the conference venue (<https://www.zin.ru>)

Accommodation

The Sokos Hotels are comfortable and conveniently located in relation to the conference (about 15 minutes by foot).

<https://www.sokoshotels.fi/en/st-petersburg/sokos-hotel-palace-bridge>

<https://www.sokoshotels.fi/en/st-petersburg/sokos-hotel-vasilievsky>

We also can recommend two hostels:

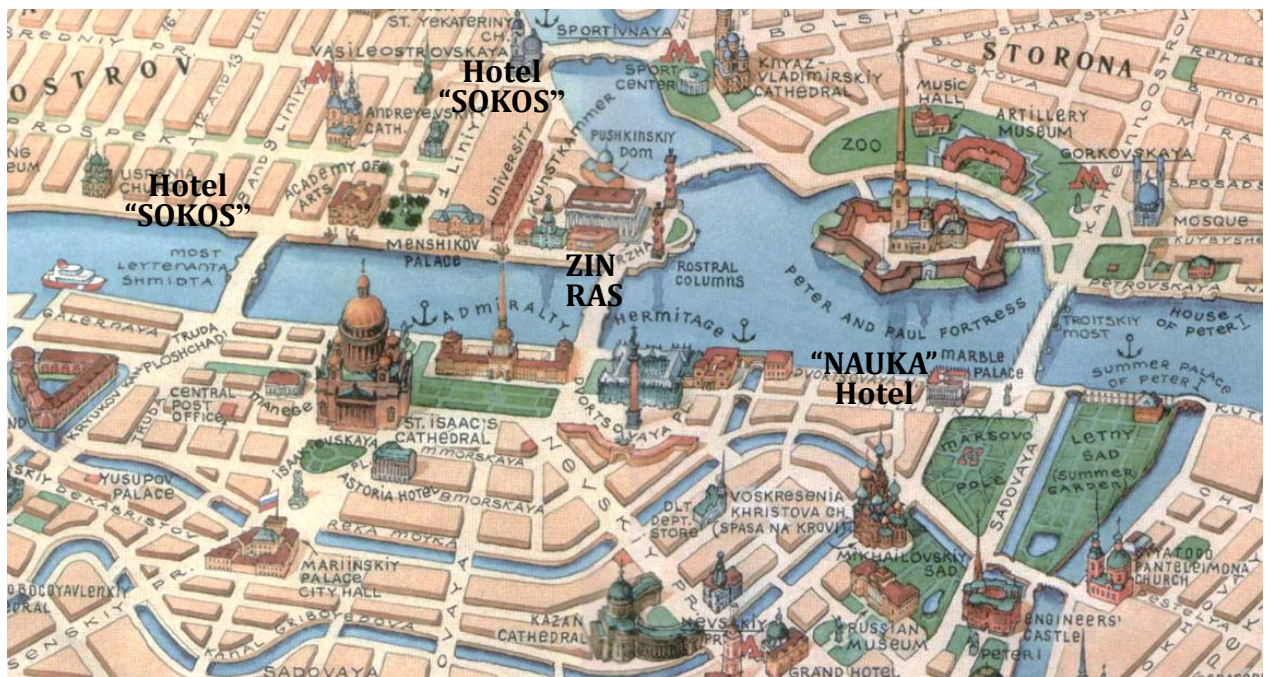

<http://www.soulkitchenhostel.com>

<http://wonderhostels.ru/en>

All of these accommodations are located relatively close to St. Petersburg's many tourist hotspots. Reservations can be arranged by contacting the hotels directly by phone, e-mail, fax, etc. Please make reservations, especially with hostels, as soon as possible. May is a very active tourist month in St. Petersburg.

The Nauka Hotel formerly was a Russian Academy of Sciences hotel, and it is located ten minutes by foot from our Institute and two steps from the Hermitage State Museum.

It has modest rooms for 1-4 people that feature a common bathroom and toilet per floor. A few apartments/suites are also available. The Nauka Hotel will begin accepting reservations at the end of February. Their rates are below average for a central St. Petersburg location. Apartment (~50 m<sup>2</sup>) rates are about 80 euros (last season price). Reservations can be made by contacting the hotel directly (email: booking@hotel-nauka.ru) or by contacting the conference organizers.

We look forward to seeing you and hope that the information here will help you organize a pleasant and productive visit to the Conference.

Kind regards,
Organizing Committee
